A Day

for Adults

Hello

Friends!

This was so much fun to put together!!! I saw the idea and decided that this would be not only for kids, but for adults. To me, writing helps remember, even more than reading.

- Write one verse per day, 1 to 4 times on provided paper. There enough for every day, or for a week, 5 days.
- Mark off which verses have been written.
- Work on the books of the Bible and how to find them, chapter and verse.
- Verses are short, medium and a long length. Some verses can be written even more than 1 to 4 times. Pay attention to penmanship and spelling.
- Feel free to make copies.
- Use these for a time of discussion with friends or family. Look at the context around the verses and discuss the usage of the word theme.
- Discuss how the theme can be used in your life and why it is important. With a friend or family.

I hope you enjoy this!!!

For His Service,
Maria Thompson

Love

April

Love: n a general sense to be pleased with; to regard with affection, on account of some qualities which excite pleasing sensations or desire of gratification. An affection of the mind excited by beauty and worth of any kind, or by the qualities of an object which communicate pleasure, sensual or intellectual. In short, we love whatever gives us pleasure and delight, whether animal or intellectual; and if our hearts are right, we love God above all things, as the sum of all excellence and all the attributes which can communicate happiness to intelligent beings (1828 Webster Dictionary)
